

FORCE is partnering with researchers at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and East Carolina University to learn more about participants' experiences in quilt workshops. We hope you'll offer attendees to your workshop the option of completing the Evaluation Form. You can review the forms before submitting, which may be helpful if you do additional workshops.

Here are some tips for doing the evaluation, and how to submit the completed forms to FORCE:

- Prepare enough paper copies of the Informed Consent document and the Evaluation Form for every participant. An electronic version of the survey is available, too (but with the electronic version, you would not have access to your participants' feedback before they submit it). You can access the online version here: https://uncg.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV_owRBIchWRwFUB6t
- At the end of the workshops, leave approximately 10-15 minutes for participants to complete the Evaluation Forms. Provide pens or pencils for participants to use. Please read the following script to participants to invite them to participate. Note that completing the survey is completely optional.
- The Evaluation Forms are anonymous. Instruct participants to not include their names or any other identifying information on the forms.
- Participants will submit their completed Evaluation Forms to the facilitators in a folder or envelope before they leave. Provide an envelope or folder for this purpose. Do not look at the Evaluation Forms until after all participants have left the premises.
- We recommend that facilitators make a hard copy of the completed Evaluation Forms from your workshops, and then mail one set of the copies of completed Evaluation Forms into FORCE along with completed quilts. FORCE will then mail these paper copies to the researchers. Please mail your completed forms to this address:
2315 Homewood Ave, Baltimore, MD 21218.

Thank you for participating in this workshop! Would you like to share feedback about your experiences in the workshop?

FORCE is partnering with researchers at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro (Dr. Christine Murray) and East Carolina University (Dr. Allison Crowe) on research to evaluate these workshops and learn about the experiences of participants. You are eligible to participate in this study if (a) you have completed a FORCE Monument Quilt Quilting Workshop, (b) you are at least 18 years old, and (c) you are able to participate in a survey written in the English language.

If you agree to participate, you will be asked to complete a brief questionnaire about your experiences with the Quilting workshop, which we estimate will take about 10-15 minutes to complete. There is no compensation for participating in this study.

In order to participate, please complete the surveys, which I will hand out to anyone interested now. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Christine Murray at cemurray@uncg.edu for more information.

Evaluation Form: Monument Quilt Quilting Workshops

Thank you for participating in this Quilting Workshop! We are interested in learning about participants' experiences in order to help us plan future workshops, as well as learn more about participants' experiences in the workshops. Please complete this Evaluation Form confidentially, and do not include your name or any other identifying information anywhere on this form. We will use this information locally to assist with our own programming. In addition, we will be submitting copies of these Evaluation Forms to the national organizers at FORCE. They are partnering with researchers at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro and East Carolina University to create a national database with Quilting Workshop participants' Evaluation Form responses in order to document the impact of these workshops at a national level. Therefore, your input is very important and valuable! Thank you in advance for your feedback, and we look forward to reading your honest input on the workshops.
